FANTASTIC FESTIVITIES @ RASANANDA

CHRISTMAS EVE & CHRISTMAS DAY

All are invited to join in merriment and cheer at the beach as Rasananda Celebrates the 24th and 25th of December. On the evening of the 24th all guests of Rasananda will experience a 5 - Course Set Menu prepared by Executive Chef Nicholas Hall of the UK. Prior to what is sure to be an award winning meal, guests will be treated to an open bar reception and a selection of hors d'oeuvres. A show complete with strolling carolers will compliment prior to guests retiring to their suites and villas to see what Santa may have left under their Christmas Tree! The joy continues on the morning of the 25th when a bespoke gourmet breakfast fit for a king will make for a memorable 25th of December. 5,000 THB per person

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2010

A 7 - course menu with matching wines sets the stage for what will be a New Years Eve to remember. Preceding dinner will be a very special cocktail party and entertainment will continue throughout the evening. As midnight approaches the night will end with a champagne toast and a bang as a brilliant fireworks show illuminates the night sky over the bay of Thong Nai Pan. A 'Morning After' brunch will be a highlight and allow all to start the new year off in a fresh and exciting way with good luck, health and prosperity. 7,000 THB per person

FUN, FRIENDS & 'MERRY' MERIT MAKING

The week surrounding the holidays at Rasananda will be one that is unforgettable as our entire resort will operate under a unique theme of Fun, Friends and Merry Merit Making. Events such as wine tasting with a local Sommelier, special cooking classes, batik painting, waterfall treks and even the chance to visit a local Buddhist Temple and make 'merry' merit while learning about the indigenous culture are just a few of the special activities planned. All of this on 200 M of white sand beach in December... The is no better way to celebrate the holidays than in true Rasananda Style!

End.
